2. Introduction

Pango provides an interactive payment system that simplifies paying for “on street” or “off street” parking of any vehicle. Pango allows you to start, add to, end and pay for parking sessions and receive notifications emails or personal text messages alerting you of the pending expiration of a parking session (“Personal Alerts”). You may participate in any of the following ways:

- You may call Pango’s toll free telephone number and follow the interactive voice response (“IVR”) or automatic speech recognition (“ASR”) instructions.
- You may send an SMS (text message) to Pango with your parking information.
- You may download the Pango APP to your mobile device. If you consent to receive notifications and use your location, the APP will recognize you and your location through your mobile device’s GPS. Then you need only select or confirm the parking zone and push the “Start Parking” button to initiate a parking session.
- Using any telephone, you may call Pango’s toll-free number and choose or enter your vehicle’s license plate number.
- You may visit Pango’s Website and sign in to your User Account.

Pango also includes a locator function (“Mobile Locator”) which may allow you to find parking facilities nearest to your current location, as well as merchant locations or offerings nearest your location for any current Mobile Offer. Mobile Locator is dependent on your wireless service, your mobile device’s GPS antenna coverage and the wireless coverage within the area in which you are located when you access Mobile Locator. If your location is enabled or the Mobile Offers (as defined in Section 6 below) of which you take advantage use location-based products or services, you will be sending Pango location information. This information may reveal your actual location. Mobile Locator may not be available in all areas. The actual distance between your location and the nearest parking facility utilizing Pango’s APP services and/or Mobile Offer merchant location will vary depending on your location.

19. Governing Law & Jurisdiction

Regardless of your place of residence or where you access or use the Service from, these Terms and your use of the Service will be exclusively governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, excluding any otherwise applicable rules of conflict of laws, which would result in the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than the State of Florida.

Before submitting any dispute, claim, or controversy arising out of, in connection with or relating to these Terms, to court, you and we will dedicate at least two weeks to attempt to amicably resolve such matter in an informal dispute resolution process. However, nothing herein shall, in any way, affect either party's right to seek interim or emergency relief in the court of competent jurisdiction, or our right to lodge a claim against you pursuant to the indemnity clause above, in any court adjudicating a third-party claim against us – all, without referring the matter to amicable resolution pursuant to the foregoing.

Any dispute in connection with the Service or these Terms, that you and Pango are unable to amicably resolve, shall be submitted to the sole and exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the state and federal courts located in Miami-Dade County, Florida. You and Pango hereby expressly consent to the exclusive personal jurisdiction and venue of such courts, and waive any objections related thereto including objections on the grounds of improper venue, lack of personal jurisdiction or forum non conveniens.

YOU AND PANGO EACH IRREVOCABLY WAIVE THE RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THESE TERMS OR THE SERVICE, EXCEPT IN THE EVENT THAT WE LODGE A CLAIM AGAINST YOU PURSUANT TO THE INDEMNITY CLAUSE ABOVE AND THE THIRD-PARTY CLAIM AGAINST US IS BEING ADJUDICATED IN A TRIAL BY JURY.

20. General

Whenever used in these Terms, the term "Including", whether capitalized or not, means without limitation to the preceding phrase. All examples and e.g. notations are illustrative, not exhaustive.

These Terms constitute the entire agreement between you and us concerning the subject matter herein, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous negotiations and oral representations, agreements and statements.

These Terms may only be modified by written amendment duly executed by us. No waiver, concession, extension, representation, alteration, addition or derogation from the Terms by us, or pursuant to the Terms, will be effective unless consented to explicitly and executed in writing by our authorized representative.

Failure on our part to demand performance of any provision in the Terms shall not constitute a waiver of any of our rights under the Terms.

You may not assign or delegate these Terms or any of your rights, performances, duties or obligations hereunder. Any purported assignment or delegation, in contravention of the above, will be null and void. In the event of a Pango merger, acquisition, change of control or the sale of all or substantially all of our equity or assets, we may, upon notice to you and without obtaining your consent, assign and delegate these Terms, in their entirety, including all of our rights, performances, duties, liabilities and obligations contained herein, to a third party. With such assignment, transfer and delegation, we are irrevocably and fully released from all rights, performance, duties, liabilities and obligations under these Terms.

The section headings in the Terms are included for convenience only and shall take no part in the interpretation or construing of the Terms.

You consent to receive communications from Pango electronically. Pango may communicate with you by email or by other means. You agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that Pango provides to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing.

If any provision of the Terms is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable by a competent court, then the provision shall be performed and enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law to reflect as closely as possible, the original intention of that provision, and the remaining provisions of the Terms shall continue to remain in full force and effect.

21. Reporting Violations; Enforcement

Anyone seeking to report any violations of these Terms may contact Pango via e-mail: info@mypango.com. When Pango becomes aware of an alleged violation of these Terms, Pango may initiate an investigation. Depending on the severity of the violation, Pango may, at its sole discretion, immediately restrict, suspend, or terminate your access to the Service and/or pursue other civil remedies. If such violation is a criminal offense, Pango has and shall have the right notify the appropriate law enforcement agency of such violation.
